Being overweight may make your life shorter because you have a higher chance to have health problems. You can start by changing what you eat. Eat less red meat instead of chicken or fish. Fish is really good for helping you live a longer life. You should eat lots of vegetables and make sure you are getting all of the vitamins you need. You also need to get enough exercise. There are different types of exercises. Some exercise is good for the heart. Other types of exercise are good for making you stronger. Lifting weights is a good example. Rock Band

Two years ago, our 14-year-old son, Ben, asked US for a set of drums for his birthday. At first, we were very much against the idea because of the noise. “It's better than watching television or playing computer games in my free time.”, Ben argued, “and it'll keep me out of trouble.” In the end we gave in “All right,” we said, “but you must consider the rest of the family and the neighbours when you play.”

That was just the beginning. Because drums are the not the easiest instruments to move, the other members of Ben's band started appearing at our home with their guitars and other electrical equipment. And so, for several hours a week, the house shakes to the noise of their instruments and their teenage singing.

At least Ben's hobby has been good for our health: whenever the band start practicing, my husband and I go out for a long walk. And I must admit that although their music may sound a little strange, they are a friendly and polite group of young men. I cannot judge their musical skill - after all I didn't expect my parents' generation to like the same music as I did when I was a teenager - but they do play regularly in local clubs for young people.

Our main worry is that they won't spend enough time on their school work because of their musical activities, though this hasn't happened yet. I am always stressing to Ben how important his studies are. But one thing is certain - Ben was right: it has kept him out of trouble and he is never bored.

1. What is the writer trying to do in this text?
A. Talk about her hobby
B. Give advice to teenagers.
C. Describe her son's hobby
D. Compare herself with her parents.
2. Why did Ben want a set of drums for his birthday present?
A. Because he wanted to play computer games in his free time.
B. Because it would keep him out of trouble.
C. Because he preferred watching TV.
D. Because it was noisy.
3. Why does the band always practice at Ben's house?
A. It is difficult for Ben to move his drums.
B. The neighbours don't mind the noise.
C. Ben's parents enjoy listening to them.
D. They can leave their equipment there.
4. What does the writer say about the band members?

- A. They are friendly and polite
- B. They play their instruments well.
- C. She likes their musiC.
- D. They are bored.

Hip-Hop Fashions

Teenagers who listen to the same music often have a common 'look'. One hot style in music and fashion is hip-hop. Hip-hop is a type of urban music with a heavy beat. The lyrics are very important in this music. Hip-hop fashions are large or loose-fitting street clothes. The style includes baggy jeans, sweatshirts, hiking boots, and baseball caps (usually worn backward). However, teens add other clothing items like flannel shirts, jackets with sports logos, and athletic shoes. In the hip-hop style, boys and girls dress the same.

African American kids in Detroit and Chicago first made hip-hop fashions popular - they wore baggy street clothes to dance clubs. Then North American and European bands also began wearing this style. These bands influenced one another's music and clothing. This mixture made hip-hop into an international fashion sensation.

Hip-hop is now a teen fashion from Britain to Japan. Melanie Borrow, 17, of Manchester, England, says, "My pride and joy in life are my Lavis' jeans." In Japan, hip-hop is replacing the usual outfit for teenage girls: blouses and skirts with cartoon characters on them. And in the United States, teens spend a lot of money on hip-hop fashions. David Bowen, 17, of Evanston, Illinois, has five pairs of hiking boots at $100 each. Bowen says, "They're popular because a lot of hip-hop performers wear them. They even rap about them."

Hobbyists also paint pictures, attend concerts and play musical instruments. They collect everything from books to butterflies, and from shells to stamps.

People have hobbies because these activities offer enjoyment, friendship, knowledge, and relaxation. Sometimes they can bring financial profit. Hobbies also bring interesting activities for people who have retired. People, rich or poor, old or young, sick or well, can follow a satisfying hobby, regardless of their age, position, or income.

According to Holly Hall, more than half of American teenagers and young adults volunteered in 2011. Three quarters of people aged 13 to 22 whose friends volunteered regularly also did voluntary work. There was nearly twice the number of those who pursued voluntary activities based on their concern about particular social issues.

There were various volunteer projects they could carry out. For example, helping the elderly at a nursing home, organizing a library by collecting used books, newspapers, magazines and other materials, cleaning and fixing playgrounds, parks and river banks, painting classrooms and community houses.

Types of voluntary activities depend on the gender of volunteers. Boys are more likely to undertake physical activities such as environmental cleanup or working with younger children in sports, while girls are more likely to help the homeless and other needy people or to work with arts groups.
